

Putting Mathematics on the Right Track!

A day conference for teachers of Mathematics
at the National Railway Museum, York
FRIDAY 18TH JUNE 2010

Led by:

- ◆ CRAIG BARTON www.mrbartonmaths.com
Advanced Skills Teacher at Range High School Formby and THE Mr Barton of mrbartonmaths.com
- ◆ STEVE LOMAX www.kangaroomaths.com
Mathematics Adviser to Gloucestershire LA and co-founder of kangaroomaths.com
- ◆ DOUGLAS BUTLER www.tsm-resources.com organiser of the world famous TSM workshops and a lead author of Autograph
- ◆ ALAN CATLEY – has been trying for some time to bring these 3 inspirational teachers together . . . and it is finally going to happen!

Aims of the day

To provide teachers with a day in an unusual setting, based at the handsome conference facilities of the NRM in York. Delegates will come away with a wealth of ideas and resources, developed in classrooms around the country over the last 10 years, and will also receive a taste of future developments.

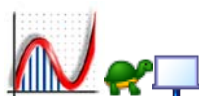

The workshops will be led by distinguished educators who all have vast classroom experience at making constructive use of a wide range of interactive resources.

Delegates may find it useful to bring a laptop computer, and will receive a wealth of interactive resources along with free personal copy of the new Autograph 3.3.

All will attend the three workshops of 70 minutes on a rotation basis:

- Workshop A A focus on NUMBER and DATA HANDLING
- Workshop B A focus on SHAPE, SPACE and MEASURES
- Workshop C A focus on ALGEBRA, GRAPHING and CALCULUS

Programme

- 9:30 Arrival, Registration and Coffee (walkable from York Station)
- 10:00 Welcome (Alan Catley): "Where have we come from in the last 10 years?"
- 10:25 Workshop 1 – Three groups A, B and C
- 11:40 Coffee
- 11:50 Workshop 2 – Three groups A, B and C
- 1:00 Lunch
- 1:50 Workshop 3 - Three groups A, B and C
- 3:00 Tea
- 3:15 Bringing it all together and looking ahead to the next 10 years.
- 4:00 Evaluations and depart, or a chance for a quick look round the museum!
